

Basketball Needs You!!

The 2009 Sydney World Masters Games are coming to town from the 10-18 October.

The World Masters Games are the World's largest participatory multi-sport event. With that comes the need for many volunteers.

We need 288 Scoretable Volunteers and 80 General Volunteers to assist the six stadiums across Sydney.

In addition to meeting some wonderful people from all parts of the world, volunteers will receive many great benefits, including:

- Official Games uniform and accreditation pass
- Official Games volunteer training and resources
- Behind-the-scenes access during the Games
- Access to free meals (as designated during volunteer shifts)
- Access to free public transport during the Games
- Volunteer Participation Certificate
- Entry to the Opening Ceremony and Closing Ceremony of the Games
- Invitation to the Volunteer Thank You Function
- Access to Games volunteer prizes, giveaways and commemorative gifts

If you are interested in taking part in the 2009 Sydney World Masters Games, please fill out your details below and fax it to 8765 8588 or email michelle_smith@nswbasketball.net.au

Name: _____

Email: _____

Contact Number: _____

Position (please circle): Scoretable Volunteer

Thank you for joining the World Masters Basketball Team!