Three NSW Juniors have been named in the 22 squad for the Australian U19 Men's Team training camp to be held at the AIS from Monday 9th June to Thursday 12th June. Jason Cadee (Bankstown), Shane Harris-Tunks (Liverpool) and Brad Simpson (Goulburn/Illawarra) have been selected in the squad as part of the build up towards the 2009 U19 World Championships in New Zealand.

The squad started the road to the Championships with a Bronze medal at the Albert Schweitzer Tournament in Germany in March, knocking out the USA along the way. Next stop on the road is the William Jones Cup to be held in Taipei, Taiwan from July 10th-18th.

At the conclusion of the camp the squad will be whittled down to a 12-man team who will contest the William Jones Cup. Assisting Head Coach Marty Clarke will be network coach Tim Mallon (Maitland) and Manager Bob McGugan (Newcastle.)
