HANNAH EVERETT- FAREWELL AND THANK YOU

Basketball NSW would like to announce that Staff Member Hannah Everett has accepted a position with Horizons Sporting Events effective Monday the 29th of March 2010.

Basketball NSW would like to take the opportunity to officially express their heartfelt thanks for, and appreciation of, the great work done by Hannah over the last eight years she worked at BNSW.

She begun as a trainee in the coaching department and has worked her way through the many departments of BNSW, through to her current position of SJC & Referee Coordinator.

Basketball NSW Events Manager, Christie Graham, has worked with Hannah for nearly eight years and particularly closely with her for the last three years.

She said, "Over the last eight years that Hannah has worked at Basketball NSW she has made an incredibly valuable contribution in every area that she has worked".

"Since working in the area of competitions and referees, Hannah has worked hard on the Sydney Junior Championships and all the administrative work involved with referees."

"The last three years has shown Hannah to be a compassionate and thoughtful person that has assisted all associations through the draw process, competition phase, and the finals."

"Hannah will be extremely missed, not just in the area of competitions and referees, but by everyone in the Basketball NSW office."

"We wish her all the best".

Hannah has worked closely with Debbie Keirs, Senior Manager Referees and Technical Officials over the last two years.

She said "Hannah has been a pleasure to work with".

"She has been thoughtful, fantastic at using her initiative, and she has been a great point of reference for all Basketball NSW Officials."

Her new exciting and challenging role of Travel Manager will see her in contact with many basketball personnel that she has already formed a working relationship with.

We would like to wish her the best in her future endeavours and will be sorry to see her go.
